Pastoral Council

I have some important things to discuss so I would like us to get together on Tuesday April 4th at 7 pm.

Is that doable? Please let me know.

Website

Still making progress. I added the Men's Night page to it this week. We took pictures of the evening so I will get those posted to the page also. Wives – please feel free to check the page when it becomes active to make sure your husband was where he said he would be. ☺

Remodeling

The remodeling is coming along fine. I have a lot accomplished on the new ambo and altar rail. I am certain that it will be in place for Easter. I do not know if it will be stained and everything, but it should be in place.

As to the new grottos... I have the lumber for them, but I have not started them yet. My hope is to have them ready for Easter also, but no promises on that one.

We also have the trim for the chair rail for the walls. I hope to have that up soon as well.

If all goes as planned, I will have a few men join me on an upcoming Saturday and we will install everything. I will be a long day so I will provide pizza and other sustenance.

Altar Cloths

I have two people who have donated funds to have the altar cloths professionally made. I have ordered them and they should be here in time for Easter also.

Easter

Easter sounds like an important day as so much will be new this year.

We will have an Easter vigil and an Easter day Mass again this year. I do not know the time for the vigil Mass, but some time after 7 pm I assume. The Easter Sunday Mass will be at 10 as usual.
