Quasi Modo Sunday

Quasimodo is a fictional character and the protagonist of the novel The Hunchback of Notre-Dame (1831) by Victor Hugo.

We will note that there is a difference between Quasi Modo and Quasimodo. The difference is a space. Quasi Modo are the first words of the Introit of today's Mass. Gaudete Sunday and Lætari Sunday also derive their name from the first word of the introit.

I am sure that before the book came out this Sunday was not called Quasi Modo Sunday and that it is just little linguistic humor and an interesting coincidence.
