Wedding Banns

Be it known to all here present that Patrick Lind, son of Gordon & Louise, and Pamella Pilant, daughter of Eugene & Frieda, intend to be united in holy matrimony. Wherefore, we hereby admonish each and all that, if anyone of you has knowledge of an impediment existing which would prevent their marrying, whether it be an impediment of blood relationship, relationship through marriage, spiritual relationship or of any other kind, you are bound to make it known to the pastor or the bishop as soon as possible. This is the third publication of the banns.

St. John XXIII

“The Catholic Church has a dignity far surpassing that of any merely human society. For it was founded by Christ the Lord. It is altogether fitting, therefore, that the language it uses should be noble, majestic, and non-vernacular.” (Veterum Sapientia, 1962)

Pentecost

Today we celebrate the 3rd Glorious Mystery of the Rosary, the descent of the Holy Ghost on the Apostles. The 3rd Person of the Holy Trinity makes Himself felt in the world for the first time and He comes like a tongue of fire. He fills the Apostles and sets their hearts on fire. They are overwhelmed and so are compelled to speak. These were no ordinary words, but were the sacred voice of God himself as the Holy Ghost gave them the words to speak.

As God gave the words to be spoken by the Apostles in today's Epistle we remember that God also gave the words to be written in the Sacred Scriptures. This is not the first time that man is inspired to proclaim God's Word.

What is important is that we learn that God's Word can be known by all and is to be known by all, no matter what language, or place of origin you subscribe to.

God is universal which is the heart of who we are as Catholic, as this name means universal. We got this name because we were seen to be like cockroaches. We were everywhere. The nice thing is that cockroaches cannot be destroyed. They will survive a nuclear blast. Funny... the Catholic Church cannot be destroyed either. So be proud and confident and speak with the voice, power and authority of the Holy Ghost given to you at Baptism and Confirmation.
