Jury Duty - Last Week

What a let down... I never got called in. I hope that means that there has been no crime and so no new trials.

John's recipe for Sausage Cabbage Soup

I guess several people asked for John's recipe for the soup he made for the social hour last week. For those who were not there you missed out.

The good news is that he has asked that I share his recipe here so you can make and enjoy it again and again.

He gave me the following recipe:

- 6 Medium Potatoes cubed
- 1 Small Onion diced
- 1 Green Bell Pepper diced
- 2 Carrots diced
- 3 Beef Smoked Sausage Skinless Foot Long sliced

Mix all together in 5 quart pot with 8 cups water. Cook until tender.

Season to taste, start with:

- 1 tsp Salt
- 1 TB Black Pepper
- 1 tsp Garlic
- 1 tsp Sage
- 2 tsp Onion Powder

Serves 6-8 people

I do not know about you but I read and read that recipe several times asking myself what is wrong with it. So I looked at the recipe again --- Sausage Cabbage Soup.

I am not a professional chief or anything I know. I do love to cook though and so it seems to me as a armature that Sausage Cabbage Soup should probably have some cabbage in it.

After brow beating him and just short of water boarding him he finally gave up the rest of the recipe. It also needs half a medium size head of cabbage chopped to your liking added to it.

Not only did he hold back on the cabbage, I noticed something else. Stingy jerk - he would not even add a tablespoon of love to the recipe. Can you imagin that? So I recommend that be added also. Not just to this recipe but to all your meals.
