Seminarian Collection

Thank you for your contributions to help Paul go to seminary. I know he greatly appreciates it.

We collected $939.22 for him last week.

I do not know about these seminarians today. Back in my day we were used for grunt labor at the parish during the summer to earn our way through seminary. I had to paint, cut grass, wash windows, trim hedges, mop floors, clean bathrooms, and you get the idea. And my parish never raised one cent for me. Yea, I tell you, these seminarians have got it pretty cushy today. I suppose, if he broke a fingernail, it would become a vocation crisis.

In any case, I pick on our friend. I do not mean it. He is a good man and I know he will make a great priest. It is good that we support him.
