Made for Happiness ???

Well, I went...

The best I can say is that no harm was done if you went. In fact the first talk was good.

While I can point out many problems, I will not. Only one thing was said or done that I can say was dangerous. As to that danger, I have already spoken to you on that matter. As to the things that were problematic, I think you, my people whom I love, would have simply rolled your eyes at and thanked God that we have our community that spares us of such silliness.

Just remember that we are made for more than happiness. We are made for God and when we are possessed by God we will experience more than the natural emotion or passion of happiness, we will experience supernatural joy.

It is this allowing God to possess us that is difficult. This requires that we surrender our very heart and soul to Him that He may rule from them and be the source and inspiration of all that we say and do. This process is called getting holy. It requires that we surrender our heart to love with all Charity, our mind to know all mystery, our intellect to all truth, our passions to restraint, our actions to moderation, and our body to suffering.

Do this and know more than happiness, know true joy. If not in this life, then in the next.

Men's Night

We had a really good men's night on Thursday. There were 9 of us there. Please consider joining us in November.

Woman's Gathering

Do we have a name for it yet????

In any case, they will be gathering on the first Saturday in October. More details to come when I get them. (Hint, hint.)
