Woman's Group

Will meet this Saturday.

9 am for Mass

Followed by chapel cleaning and brunch.
Place for brunch to be determined.

This is a new format for you ladies. I will personally be staying with you, explaining how certain things need to be done. One example is how to take care of the altar clothes. Keep in mind that a set of altar clothes costs $1500. Another example is how to deal with wax. Another is how to purify and clean the altar linens and how and why they are folded in a certain way. There are a few other things. If nothing else, you will learn a lot about behind the screens tidbits that most do not know about and yet have a direct impact on the Mass. Come learn, clean, socialize and eat. It will be a good day, please come and join us.

And, yes, after I do my part, I will leave so you can talk about me behind my back. I know you only have good things to say, so I do not worry about it. ☺

Convocation for Priests

Convocation is this week so remember that there will be no Mass on Tuesday or Wednesday.

AG to Investigate

The Michigan Attorney General has announced that they will be investigating the files of all priests in all 7 dioceses of Michigan.

Bishop Boyea has stated that there are no active priests in the Diocese who have any known active accusations of sexual abuse of minors. Note that he has only stated minors. We do not know about adults and seminarians to the best of my knowledge.

Wild Goose Program

Some of you ay have heard that there is yet another program starting in the Diocese. It is called the Wild Goose. It deals with developing your relationship with the Holy Spirit.

I have seen all 14 episodes of this program. I will let you know more after I digest it a little bit more.
